Reading Plan for July 2020

Even during a global pandemic, I've not been able to relax my mind and read more.

Therefore, this month I have decided to plan to read at least x1 short story per day! It's a huge self-challenge, as I have a lot to focus on. However, I thought if I share it with you all online, then I have no excuse – I can't just dip in and out of reading.

I hope I will develop more consistency when it comes to reading.

You're welcome to join me the book is called: The Story Love, Loss & The Lives of Women – 100 Great Short-Stories Chosen By Victoria Hislop (2013)
